

FROM PAGE TO STAGE....

The sensational new drama workshop that equips students with ideas and skills to improve their acting ability and learn more about techniques for directing and producing a dynamic piece of theatre.

Using contemporary scripts to explore how knowledge about directing techniques can compliment the actor's performance, 'Learning Through Drama' promises a most productive and rewarding workshop that will enable students to enhance their acting in an exciting and inspirational way.

During the workshop you will learn how to:

- Develop the creative process of risk taking, problem solving, debate and reflection.
- Use drama as a tool to explore themes and issues and to develop dramatic skills.
- Use improvisation and character activities to extend understanding of the theatre.
- Explore different ways of creating theatre, drawing on multiple stimuli and styles of presentation.

HELEN ROBINSON BA (Ed) Dunelm established the 'Learning Through Drama' company in 2005, providing creative education with direct links to the National Curriculum. Helen believes in sharing good practice that will enable students to build up their confidence and competence in order to maximise performance levels. She is an enthusiastic and inspirational workshop facilitator whose focus is always on ensuring that students remain fully engaged and motivated throughout.
--

For further information or to book this workshop for your school please contact 'Learning Through Drama' directly (details below).