

USING DRAMA TO EXTEND & ENRICH CREATIVE LEARNING.

The sensational new course that equips teachers with ideas and skills to offer all pupils an opportunity to access creative learning in a positive and dynamic way.

'Learning Through Drama' understands teachers and how creative they can be. We also understand the demands on your time and the pressure to deliver a demanding and ever changing curriculum. With this in mind we promise a most productive and rewarding training experience that will enable you to enhance your teaching in an exciting and productive way.

During the course you will learn how to:

- Encourage the creative process of risk taking, problem solving, debate and reflection.
- Create inspiring, positive and memorable learning experiences in a stimulating environment.
- Use readily adaptable learning techniques through which the pupils' own ideas can grow and flourish.

HELEN ROBINSON BA (Ed) Dunelm established the 'Learning Through Drama' company in 2005, providing creative education with direct links to the National Curriculum. Helen believes in sharing good practice that will enable colleagues to build up their confidence and competence in order to maximise pupils' learning experiences. She is an enthusiastic and inspirational trainer whose focus is always on ensuring that pupils remain fully engaged and motivated. She is ever mindful of the importance of classroom management and her ideas reflect this throughout.

For further information or to book this course for your school please contact 'Learning Through Drama' directly (details below).